

LIBRARY RESOURCE LIST

DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES AWARENESS MONTH:
CELEBRATE AS A FAMILY

MAMA ZOOMS

Mama Zooms
Jane Cowen-Fletcher

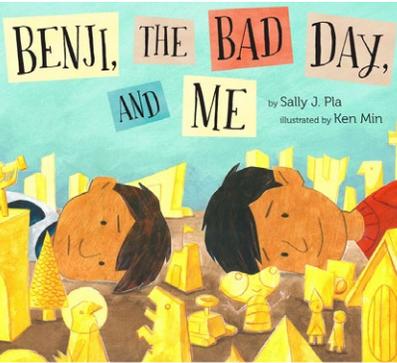

A young child enjoys the day on his mom's lap in her wheelchair.

Recommended for ages 2-5.

Jane Cowen-Fletcher

BENJI, THE BAD DAY, AND ME

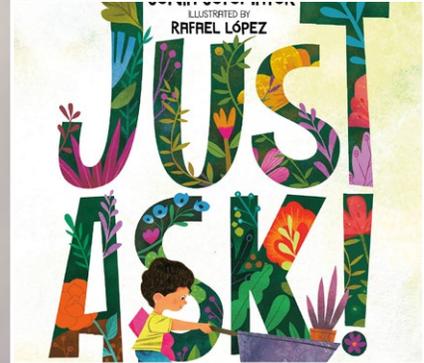

Shares a story of children with autism who had a tough day and how they can support each other.

Recommended for ages 3-7.

Sally J. Pla and Ken Min

JUST ASK: BE DIFFERENT,
BE BRAVE, BE YOU

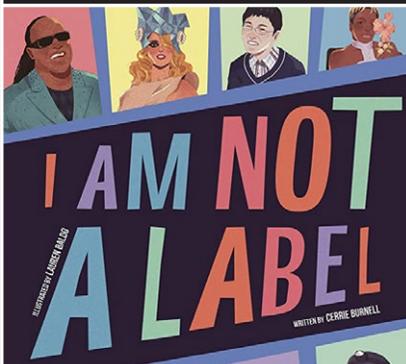

Each page introduces a new character, who shares about their disability, followed by a question children without disabilities can relate to.

Recommended for ages 4-8.

Sonia Sotomayor
and Rafael Lopez

I AM NOT A LABEL

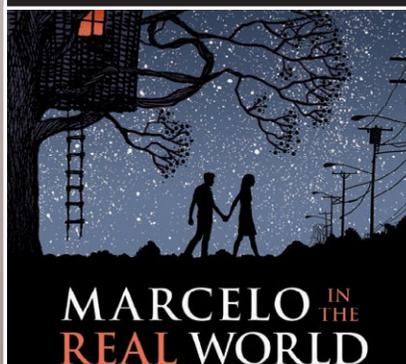

This book helps children identify heroes with disabilities to look up to.

Recommended for ages 8-12.

Cerrie Burnell
and Lauren Mark Baldo

MARCELO IN THE REAL WORLD

After attending a special school, Marcelo must learn how to navigate the 'real world'.

Recommended for young adults.

Francisco X. Stork

PINNED

Two teenagers, one struggling with unseen disabilities, the other with physical disabilities, help each other navigate challenges.

Recommended for young adults.

Sharon G. Flake