

2025 Christmas Caroling

Contest Official Rules

1. Unit must have a group of at least four members. Members must be currently in the unit. Must be service members, civilian employees cannot be part of the group.
2. *All units must be Battalion/Squadron or Regimental level only.
3. Only one group per unit may participate.
4. No live animals can be used in the performance.
5. Need to keep the performance PG as this is a family event.
6. Must perform the song chosen from the provided list. Unit is not allowed to change the song unless approved by MCCA Coordinator. Once a song has been chosen by a unit it is crossed off the list and cannot be used by another unit.
7. Selection of song is based on submittal of a proper completed package.
8. Lyrics cannot be changed or edited.
9. Only 10 units will be allowed to participate due to time constraints of the event. First come, first served.
10. All units must sign up with their designated MCCA Coordinator.
11. Minimal instruments may be used. However, there will not be time for "full bands" to set up.
12. Performances can be Acapella or with background music, but the music must be free from vocals accompanying.
13. Performance will be judged on, vocals, costuming, and overall entertainment value.
14. Judges scores are final.
15. Prize money will be transferred to the unit's 2108 fundraising account at the completion of event.

*A unit is defined by having a Unit and Family Readiness Account (must have a specific account for transfer of prize money) to enter contest.

Request unit leadership (CO/XO/SgtMaj) to sign below.

The unit hereby agrees to all rules stated above for the Unit Christmas Caroling Contest.
